

EFFY Jewelry Social Media Policy

Purpose

The Company understands that social media can be a fun and rewarding way to share your life and opinions with family, friends, and co-workers around the world. However, the use of social media also presents certain risks and carries with it certain responsibilities. To assist you in making responsible decisions about your use of social media, we have established these guidelines for appropriate social media use.

Definitions

In the rapidly expanding world of electronic communication, social media can mean many things. Social media includes all means of communicating or posting information or content of any sort on the internet, including to your own or someone else's web log or blog, journal or diary, personal web site, social networking or affinity web site, web bulletin board or chat room, whether or not associated or affiliated with EFFY Jewelry, as well as any other electronic communication.

Ultimately, you are solely responsible for what you post online. Before creating online content, consider some of the risks and rewards that are involved. Keep in mind that any of your conduct that adversely affects your job performance, the performance of fellow crew members or otherwise adversely affects guests, may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Policy

Know & Follow the Rules

Ensure your postings are consistent with the rules and policies inside the Crew Member Handbook and Onboard Crew Conduct Policy. Inappropriate postings that may include discriminatory remarks, harassment and threats of violence or similar inappropriate or unlawful conduct will not be tolerated and may subject you to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Post Only Appropriate Content

- You should maintain the confidentiality of the Company trade secrets and Company-private or Company-confidential information. Trade secrets may include information regarding products, processes, and sales techniques. Do not post internal reports, confidential policies and procedures or other business-related confidential communications.
- Do not create a link from your blog, website, or other social networking site to a Company website without prior approval from the branding team.
- When connecting with coworkers on social media platforms, please ask for their consent before sending friend requests.
- Use discretion when adding guests or passengers to your social media networks to maintain privacy and professionalism.

- If a guest insists on adding you to their social media platform, be sure the "friend" or "follow" request is initiated by the guest and be sure to document the request with a screenshot.
- Employees may stay connected with guests they have previously added on social media platforms, provided that such interactions remain professional and align with the expectations detailed within this policy.
- Never represent yourself as a spokesperson for the Company, unless you have been authorized by EFFY Jewelry to speak on behalf of the Company. If you do publish a blog or post online related to the work you do or subjects associated with EFFY Jewelry, make it clear that you are not speaking on behalf of the Company. It is best to include a disclaimer, such as "the postings on this site are my own and do not necessarily reflect the views of EFFY Jewelry or any affiliates."
- Only EFFY Jewelry can set prices and other terms and conditions for the products being offered. You are not authorized to advertise EFFY Jewelry products on your blog, website or other social media site. You may, however, refer your reader to the appropriate Company-sponsored source (such as www.effyjewelry.com), provided you identify yourself as a company associate.

Additional Social Media Guidelines

- You cannot use or repost content from the Effy global channel on your own account.
- You cannot use "Effy Jewelry" in your social media handle to avoid possible misrepresentation.
- You may use #effyjewelry as a hashtag and describe your affiliation with the Effy brand in your bio.

Using Social Media at Work

Refrain from using social media during working time unless it is work-related as authorized by your manager.
