Section 5: Expenses

- Please ensure you have access to a minimum of USD $500. This is suggested as an emergency fund to cover your first thirty (30) days while on a ship for personal purchases or any unexpected incidentals that may arise from the time you leave home until you receive your first compensation deposit. Your credit card may be required for incidentals in order to check in to your hotel.

- The company does not reimburse for certain items including but not limited to: the cost of your medical examination, passport, and/or certification fees, your C1D visa and application fees. These are prerequisites for enrollment in the Effy at Sea program.
- Be sure to keep your original receipts for expenses pertaining to joining the ship and returning home; this includes costs for food, taxis, and other land-based travel such as trains, shuttles, etc.
- The company will cover baggage costs up to 30 kg in total each way (to the ship and to the repatriation destination). Luggage over 30kg in total is not eligible for reimbursement.
- Inquire with your Fleet Leader for instructions on submitting an expense report along with the corresponding receipts.

Section 6: Medical Requirements

It is the Crew Member's (CM) responsibility to be fully prepared with the necessary medical requirements to embark. This includes having:

- An original and valid MSC Medical completed by any PEME licensed medical practitioner/physician with all provided attachments (Pre- Employment Seafarer Declaration, Seafarer Fitness Certificate, PEME Physical examination and Pre-Employment medical practitioner declaration)
- Proof of two (2) doses of MMR, two (2) doses of Varicella, one (1) dose of Yellow Fever and Covid vaccination
- FOR INDIAN NATIONALS ONLY: Completion of forms Annexure IV & V must be specifically requested from the clinic where your cruise-line medicals are being completed and these forms must then be linked to your crew profile in the DG Shipping portal.

Important Policy Notices:

YOU ARE REQUIRED TO PRESENT YOUR ORIGINAL MEDICAL DOCUMENTS IN ORDER TO BOARD A VESSEL.

Should you be denied boarding due to your failure to comply with the Company's requirements and policies regarding the acquisition and presentation of original medical documents, the Employment Agreement will automatically terminate and you will be held financially responsible for repatriation costs.

- The medical examination shall indicate if the CM is deemed "Fit for Shipboard Duty."
 - If the CM is found not to be "Fit for Shipboard Duty," pursuant to the standards set forth by Effy At Sea, US Maritime, and/or the Vessel's operator, the prospective CM shall be denied engagement without liability to the Company.
 - If the CM does not present a complete original of their medical (including medical forms, vaccine certifications, lab results, etc.) upon embarkation, the Vessel reserves the right to deny the CM boarding, and the Employment Agreement will automatically terminate.
 - Due to the nature of the roles onboard, applicants with a BMI of 40 or above will not be deemed as "Fit for Shipboard Duty" and will not be eligible for employment onboard.
 - Applicants with a BMI between 35 and 40 will be required to complete a functional test to ensure they are able to walk, climb up, and down stairs unaided in case of an emergency onboard.

Section 7: For Indian Nationalities only

All crew members joining a vessel are required to have their STCW 2010 Certificate issued in their home country.

- Please carry the original STCW documents with you when traveling.
- The cost(s) associated with obtaining this documentation is the CM's responsibility.
